Petition #12 encourages each local church and organization within the AMC to bring an informational display concerning its work to the Annual Meeting.

Petition #14 encourages all AMC groups to use teleconferencing and modem links to more effectively involve churches in isolated communities in doing the work of the Conference and regions.

Petition #15 calls for the AMC to develop a plan and strategies for improving communication and networking within the Conference.

Petition #16 adds at-large and non-appointed missionaries to the list of those who would have their way paid to the Annual Meeting.

CONFERENCE COORDINATING COUNCIL. Betty Taylor reported on various areas that have involved the work of the CCC.

1. The CCC responded to the mandate to review and refine the definition of the Regional Program Councils.
2. The promotion of a first ever Mission Celebration coordinated by Ann Janzen, Conference Secretary of Global Ministries. This conference-wide effort will take place on the weekend of September 16-20, 1994. Each region has their own regional coordinator.

3. The Council developed a greater understanding of the Russia Initiative and the role of Alaska in meeting the mission needs for the Russian Far East. Bruce Weaver, through the GBGM, has worked with the Council to begin to comprehend the potential for ministry in this area.

4. Chukotka Native Christian Ministries are progressing. This ministry combines the effort of five denominational bodies as well as Wycliff Bible translators. Thanks to Jim Campbell for his assistance with this ministry.

5. Doug McCoy spoke about the work of the Nome Community Center and their effort to raise funds to finance the Bering Strait Russian Youth Entrepreneurial Enterprises Project. This project provides entrepreneurial training for native and non-native Russian youth residing in the Provideniya region of the Russian Far East by training youth who will serve their communities and/or produce products for sale outside their region.

NOME COMMUNITY CENTER. Doug McCoy reported on the work of the Nome Community Center. NCC is an institution related to the National Program Division and this year was the recipient of the AMC Golden Cross offering. While most of the programs receive funding from the state and federal government, the Teen Center, serving as many as 500 children and youth a year, depends solely upon church giving to sustain its ministry. Doug lifted up three aspects of the Center's program.

1. NCC has become a site for United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, to send students for a transcultural experience.

2. An expanded native and non-native Russian youth entrepreneurial ministry that uses the teaching of small business skills to demonstrate democracy, free market economy, and the improvement of the local economic and social situation in the cities of Provideniya and New Chapalino.

3. The NCC is the lead agency in the Bering Strait Community Partnership. Doug showed a video that highlights the program of the Partnership.

LAY LEADER - CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT DIALOGUE. The dialogue was presented by Lane Rees and Carol Seckel. Their thoughts concerning various ministries within the Alaska Missionary Conference were interspersed among the verses of the hymn "This Is A Day of New Beginnings."

V. REPORTS TO THE CONFERENCE

A. Council Director's Report

Jim Campbell

With this report, I conclude my tenure as Council Director. It has been a fascinating four years, experiencing the Conference forming and reforming itself, seeking definition of its structured parts and their relation to the whole. The dynamic is still in flux, but regional identities are forming with specific focuses of ministry. At the same time, the Conference Coordinating Council has emerged with a stronger sense of purpose and authority.

Still, there are many things that need to be emphasized as the Conference moves on with a new Council Director:

1. A greater emphasis on Communications (I have heard this again and again). This is an is that bears special meaning to those in more isolated circumstances.
2. More access to ideas happening in the larger church, especially in areas of congregational development.
3. Living creatively on next to nothing is the challenge of all Conference committees. It has been exciting watching regional program councils turn their meetings into program events.

B. Conference Coordinating Council

Betty J. Taylor, Chair

The Conference Coordinating Council met in November of 1993 and February of 1994 in extended sessions, offering their support and receiving reports from the Regional Program Councils, subcommittees, member program bodies, representatives of the General Boards, the Conference staff, and our General Board of Global Ministries linking person.

Responding to the mandate of Annual Meeting to review and better define the scope and purpose of the Regional Program Councils, an ad hoc committee drafted their suggestions which were reviewed by the Regional Program Councils and finalized in the February Council meeting. Their report will be presented to Annual Meeting.

Questions regarding use of funds by the Regional Program Councils were clarified. A recommendation was made to the RPCs that they make use of teleconferencing where appropriate to minimize meeting expenses. A request was made of The Annual Meeting Planning Committee that more adequate time and space be planned for RPC meetings. In other action the Council coordinated the decision for Ann Janzen, Secretary of Global Ministries, to set up a Conference-wide Celebrate Mission Event for which the Jurisdictional Liaisons will function as core interpreters; referred to the Nominating and Rules Committee two requests: (1) that membership in the Conference Coordinating Council be adjusted to include all Conference program functions and (2) that the language in R5.1006 which lists who shall be representatives to the Councils be changed to make it consistent; and referred to the Council on Finance and Administration a request that they authorize a Conference-wide financial appeal for Community UMC in Nome.

C. Kenai Peninsula Regional Program Council

Robert Simmons, Chair

The fall meeting of the Council was a retreat to China Poot Bay. This was a combination Spiritual and Planning Retreat. The Spiritual formation was led by Jan Anderson, the Planning by Mary Ann Gross. The event was so uplifting that plans are in the works for another such retreat this fall.

The Council has supported a Celebrating Marriage Retreat led by Dave and Kim Beckett, Snow Camp, led by Steve Lambert, a Council wide pulpit exchange, and a monthly gathering of the Pastors. A joint Vacation Bible School between North Star and Kenai, led by a VIM team out of Oklahoma will be taking place in July.

Bonnie Miller has been elected as our new Secretary, and she graciously accepted. A Youth Council is being formed on the Kenai in an ongoing attempt to reach the youth. The Council is also supporting a regional event scheduled for February of 1995 that will bring a nationally known preacher to Homer and the peninsula.

D. Northern Region Program Council

Edie McCoy, Chair

During 1994, the NRPC celebrated the inclusion of several new individuals in our group, and we look forward to having persons from Anvik join our activities in 1995. We met in retreat setting at Birchwood in September and held our spring meeting in Fairbanks in April. In addition, we used audioconference for two short winter business sessions.

We have established seven priority areas for our work. These are Youth Ministry, Education, Mission Outreach to Rural NRPC Churches, Spiritual Development, Ecumenical Outreach, Communication Within the Region, and Support to UMC-related Institutions.

Highlights of activities include prayer support and one-to-one outreach for members, plans for a regional prayer calendar, and sharing of Sunday School materials. Funds are committed to help with leadership costs for a Celebrate Marriage program to be held in Fairbanks. We funded a trip by the UAF Campus Minister to the Rural College UAF campus in Nome and to the village sites on St. Lawrence Island. The Campus Minister can be an important link within our region, and we have begun plans for possible 800-number or audioconference program to extend campus outreach next year. Our mission Outreach Task Force has proposed four volunteer work-team projects for 1994, beginning with a painting project in a low-income housing area in Fairbanks in June and a work project in Willow and Trapper Creek in August.

During the year, the NRPC has reaffirmed our commitment to continue our existence as a region and to invite the new ministry of Anvik to join us. We feel a cohesiveness and a common purpose, and we are willing to face the challenges of distance and diversity.

E. Southcentral Regional Program Council

Rose McLean, Chair

Our RPC met four times this past year. The first meeting was organizational in June when we elected officers:

- Rose McLean continues as chair
- Vice-chair is Kathleen Hoover
- Dave Kober is secretary.

In September we elected Nathan Henry and Michael Fredericks to be the youth representatives for RPC and CCYM. Throughout the year we have had area-wide youth events. The first one was at St. John to see a presentation of Godspell. In November, First church hosted about 80 youth plus their adult leaders and in January over 200 youth and adults attended an event hosted by St. John at the Alaska Club. Brian Sixby, seminary intern at Anchor Park is providing the leadership for an end of school event in June. We also had our sixth confirmation retreat with classes from Wasilla, Anchor Park, Dutch Harbor, and St. John participating this year.

In February we offered a leadership training event at St. John. Twenty persons attended and the leadership was provided by Jan Cawvey, Sharon Cooper, Dennis Holway, and Rose McLean.

Three projects are currently on our front burner. One is exploring the feasibility of hiring a part-time person to be director of regional singles and young adults. The other two are planning for a "Celebrate Mission" event and also the possibility of an area-wide day-time Disciple class.

Finally, as a Regional Program Council, we took the responsibility of hosting annual meeting this year.

We have had a high level of involvement from most of the churches throughout the year and find that to be energizing.

F. Southeastern Regional Program Council

Jim Sutton, Chair

This past year has been a year of change in Southeast. Three of the five congregations in Southeast had a change in pastors. The evening preceding the fall meeting at Northern Light we had a racism retreat conducted by Jennifer Tucci and Sandi Pahlke of Aldersgate. It was a very interesting and consciousness-raising evening, and I believe we all learned something from it.

At the November meeting, the Southeast Regional Program Council (SERPC) struggled with what our function as a RPC was and what we could do that would benefit all the churches in Southeast. After some discussion, it became quite clear that one concern we all shared was youth. We felt there was a need for regional youth activities, but also knew that as adults we could not plan what the activities would be. We needed the input of the youth. Therefore it was decided that we should pay the way for one youth from each of the churches to come to our spring '94 meeting in Sitka. We encouraged the churches to send additional youth at their own expense. In addition, we elected an at-large youth representative, Janelle Snowhook of Douglas. The response to this at the spring meeting was tremendous -- we had 11 youth attend. The youth reported that they believed there should be a Southeast Regional Youth Council (SERYC) that would meet in conjunction with the SERPC at its fall and spring meetings. The purpose of the SERYC would be to plan regional youth activities. All the youth left with a renewed commitment to regional activities and look forward to Youth Camp at the Southeast United Methodist Camp.

The SERPC looks forward to the coming year with renewed hope and energy inspired by the excitement of and our commitment to youth.

G. Administrative Unit

1. Church Location and Building

John Campbell, Chair

This has been a significant year in the Alaska Missionary Conference for the completion and beginning of building projects. No less than 9 projects, totaling more than $2,800,000, have begun or been completed.

Completed projects have included the educational and office addition at Northern Light United Church; the educational additions at St. John UMC and First UMC of Wasilla; a new roof at the Chugiak UMC and the Trapper Creek Fellowship building; and the First Phase facility at the UMC of Unalaska.

Ongoing projects include the bathhouse at Birchwood Camp, the First Facility at St. Paul UMC and planning for Phase Two at the UMC of Unalaska. Anchor Park UMC is planning a ground breaking in May for the first phase of their educational addition.

Applications for projects which require Board of Location and Building approval are available from John Campbell.

2. HMEP

Billy Still

The Administrative Unit is recommending no changes in the HMEP program for 1995. Due to the high rates and the general concern in regard to these rates a task force has been formed to consider options for the future. This task force will consider the new Board of Pensions, Healthflex program along with a wide variety of other options. Our concern is to maintain adequate coverage at the most reasonable rate possible. This task force currently consists of Benec Braden, Jeff Scott, and Billy Still. It is our intention to have a full report with items for action at the 1996 Annual meeting of the Alaska Missionary Conference.

H. Professional Ministries Unit

1. Committee on Superintendency

Thomas Taylor, Chair

The Committee on the Superintendency is a subcommittee of the Professional Ministries Unit. The committee meets three times each year with the PMU and other less formal times as deemed necessary and convenient.

The committee has the overall responsibility of serving as a support group for the Conference Superintendent, thus much of the work of the committee is confidential in nature.

We are responsible for development of various parts of the conference budget relating to the Superintendent. This year we recommended the continuation of the existing formula for determining the Superintendent's salary.

In particular this year we came up with a new form to be used by Staff/ Parish Relations Committees as part of the pastor evaluation process.

Arlene Wood and I also serve on the Western Jurisdiction Committee on the Episcopacy which deals with similar issues. Hence, we have been able to share policies and procedures with persons from the other conferences of the jurisdiction. This committee has generated a set of recommendations for major revisions in the process of electing Bishops at Jurisdictional Conference.

2. Board of Diaconal Ministry

Rose McLean, Chair

The conference Board of Diaconal Ministry provides a personal and professional support base for the diaconal minister, certified person, and persons in diaconal forms of ministry.

The two major responsibilities of the conference Board of Diaconal Ministry are:

1. For diaconal ministry -- identification, enlistment, candidacy, consecrations, and support.
2. For certification in professional ministry careers of education, youth ministry, evangelism, and music -- identification, enlistment, completion of requirements, certification, and support for professional growth.

Rose McLean continues her certification as Director of Christian Education and is completing her seventh year as Diaconal Minister at St. John UMC in Anchorage. Dennis Holway, pastor at Turnagain UMC, Anchorage is certified as a minister of Christian Education. Joan Wilkins, Diaconal Minister, has served Ninilchik: St. Peter the fisherman as a local pastor and provided Christian Education resources to the Kenai Peninsula. Sharon Cooper has completed her requirements for consecration as a Diaconal Minister and that service will be held during this annual meeting. She is completing her second year on the staff of Anchor Park UMC in Anchorage in the areas of Christian Education and Music Ministry.

Each local church has been contacted this year to provide the names of persons who are employed in diaconal forms of ministry and they were invited to a fellowship supper before the Cokesbury Preview. We hope this will provide support base for these persons.

Persons or churches seeking more information regarding Diaconal Ministry or certification should contact Rose McLean.

I. Conference Council on Youth Ministries

Steven Lambert

The past program year was full of activities for the CCYM. The Alaska Mission Road Trip was a great success with 30 people participating. The group of high school students from 9 different UMCs from across Alaska stayed the Birchwood Lodge and other buildings and hauled in a year's supply of firewood. At Chickaloon we dug a ditch for three days to increase the salmon hatchery water flow, but more importantly the team learned of their fight for sovereignty rights and made lasting friends with people of Chickaloon. The team then traveled to Valdez and Fairbanks for further community service and church work and Denali for a helicopter sightseeing ride. The trip ended with a presentation at Birchwood Middle School Camp and a closing communion service at St. John's.

The CCYM sent two youth and one adult to NYMO in Rochester, N.Y., to represent Alaska at the national gathering last August.

Snow Camp was a tremendous success. We had to turn youth down who wanted to come because we ran out of beds. Our guest speaker was Rodger Nishioka. Rodger was excellent in aiding us all to grow in our relationship with Christ. During the last night of camp multiple professions of faith and reaffirmations of faith were made with 15 youth making a future commitment to a time of service ministry. The Holy Spirit has been with us this year!

J. Historian's Report

Verda Carey, Conference Historian

The Conference committee on Archives and History is charged with collecting and maintaining archives and historical records.

There are many anniversaries to celebrate this year. Anchor Park UMC, Chugiak UMC, and First UMC, Fairbanks are celebrating 40 years; the S.E. Methodist Camp was organized 40 years ago and Birchwood Camp 35 years ago. The Wesley Foundation at U.A. Fairbanks (now campus ministries) was begun in 1954. Twenty years ago, the first consultation with the National Division was held. Northern Light United Church celebrated 20 years in April and last, but certainly not least, the first annual meeting of the Alaska Mission was held in Juneau in 1904 -- 90 years ago!

The annual meeting of the Western Jurisdiction's Commission on Archives and History was held at Salem last July; Bea Shepard and Claudia Kelsey attended. At that meeting an invitation was extended for the 1994 meeting to be held in Anchorage. The invitation was accepted and the meeting will be at APU on August 4 - 7.

The conference archives are housed in the Douglas Community United Methodist Church; keep us on your newsletter mailing list and send us "historical material" for these files.

K. Alaska Christian Conference

Ann Janzen and Mike Munn

The Alaska Christian Conference continues to be the vital ecumenical body in Alaska, with eleven member communions and five affiliate members. Its Executive Committee meets semi-annually to carry on the business of the organization between its Biennial Assembly gatherings. Ann Janzen and Mike Munn represent the Alaska Missionary Conference, and Linda Jean Myers serves as Secretary.

The 1995 Biennial Assembly will be held in February, 1995, in Sitka. There will be more information in the "Mission Monitor."

Active Task Forces include Ecumenical Dialogue, In Response to HIV/AIDS, Native Alaskan Issues, Ecumenical Decade of Solidarity with Women, Child Abuse, Slope Ministry, Prison Reform, and Disaster Preparedness.

Several other United Methodists are related to the Alaska Christian Conference through affiliate members. David Fison reports on RurAL/CAP; Aleen Fison on Church Women United; and Ron Myers on the Alaska Pacific University Center for Religious Studies.

L. Outdoor Ministries

Jim Fellers

Preparation of a Dean's Manual for use at both program sites was the most significant accomplishment of the Outdoor Ministry Committee this year. The manual, prepared in its original form by the Oregon/Idaho Annual Conference and "Alaskanized" by our committee, covers a wide range of helpful topics which include the theology of camping, program development, counselor recruitment, specific age level characteristics, health and safety issues, and appropriate procedures for each site.

The committee continued to clarify its role in relationship to the boards of the Southeast Alaska United Methodist Church Camp, Birchwood Camp, and Hope Retreat Center. It received the good news that SEaumcc has received title to its forty acres from the State of Alaska. This is the result of many years of effort led by Bea Shepard.

We also approved a proposal to meet annually with both boards on site to continue laying vital groundwork for distribution of the empowering financial gift in the year 2000 when at least one million dollars will be placed in the account of each annual conference's unit, board, or agency responsible for outdoor ministry. As a part of this process, we are urging each site to begin or continue planning to achieve ACA accreditation using initial funds from the gift to bring sites up to ACA standards.

A timeline is being prepared to enable each site to provide ideas and comments in the development of criteria which ultimately will be used to disburse funds from the gift.

This year has seen important strides by each board toward upgrading both facilities and programming. Each local church is encouraged to find ways to increase the use of our sites and in the registration of children and youth in the program camps. And, don't forget, there may be a place for you as a dean or counselor!

1. Birchwood Camp Board

Sandy McWilliams, Chair

Two years ago you heard about our "leap of faith" when we hired a full-time Camp Director/Manager. The Board is pleased to say this "leap" has brought more positive changes than we ever dreamed possible. We, and the camping community, have been blessed many times over by having this wonderful Director/Manager... thanks Dave Kober! Work teams last summer really practiced the "3 R's" (repaired, replaced, repainted) and it shows. The camp sparkles and "most everything" works. Several times you have also heard us say, "This year--a new bathhouse." Next year you will not hear this because thanks to many of the challenges both youth and adults met in our community, the $8,000 donation from Reedsburg, Wisconsin United Methodist Church, several work teams, and lots of coordination with the Director/Manager, we are within $2,000 of our goal to build the bathhouse this summer. THANKS! THANKS! THANKS! PRAISE THE LORD and AMEN.

2. Southeast United Methodist Camp (Argetsinger)

Richard Haight, Chair

The property where our Southeast camp is located now belongs to us. The title was received April 4, Patent #13556. A potluck celebration will be held June 18 at 6:00p.m. All of the camp's friends, supporters, and users of the camp over the years are invited to attend this event. After the potluck, we will dedicate four major buildings to the memory of persons who contributed to the success and life of the camp. The main lodge is named in memory of John D. Argetsinger. The Maier (winter) cabin is dedicated in memory of Frank Maier. Bob and Mary Treat gave the camp a small self-contained cabin, which is known as the Treat cabin. Finally, the manager's house is dedicated in memory of Steve Jacoby. Steve and Maggie served as camp managers for ten years.

The 1994 United Methodist camp will have a new twist and invite non-Methodist youth to participate with our youth in our church-sponsored camps. Our camp program this year is led by Kim Poole, as she is being backed by all five Southeast Alaska United Methodist Churches to make this an outstanding year. We are looking for new ways to make the camp and the camping program meet the needs and schedules of today's youth and our church families.

Jan Wyatt, our camp manager, was injured in an automobile accident. While he recuperates, Brad Campbell will stay in the Treat Cabin to oversee maintenance of the facilities.

M. Communications

Jim Campbell, Chair

With a budget of only $500.00, we focused on printed materials that outlined the Advance Special giving and Volunteer in Mission possibilities in Alaska. These materials were made available for "Global Village '93" and continued in use as the primary conference printed promotional materials through the year.

In 1993, the Conference video on apportionments was completed and a new video explaining the need for Alaskan missions to the larger church was proposed and funded. It was completed in April 1994, even as the need for new printed materials to accompany the video were approved for funding by the National Division.

Meanwhile, other concerns of internal Conference communications continued with thought given to more effective means of communication between churches.

N. New Ministries Committee

John Tindell

During the past year the New Ministries Committee: (1) focused upon expanding the life and ministry of the Trapper Creek Fellowship; (2) explored the possibility of a new ministry at Talkeetna; (3) assisted the Palmer Fellowship in determining its future; (4) developed a criterion for future new ministries within the AMC; and (5) pioneered the "sister church" concept whereby churches within our conference pair-up to mutually support and encourage each other.

Each of these activity areas will be a continuing agenda item for the New Ministries Committee during the coming year.

O. Conference Secretary of Global Ministries

Ann Janzen

Much of the work of the last year has been spent in finding a way to mesh the position and functions of the Conference Secretary of Global Ministries in the Alaska Missionary Conference with the expectations and resources of the General Board of Global Ministries. Thanks to the understanding and work of the Conference Coordinating Council, the Superintendent, the Field Representative for the Western Jurisdiction, and the rules Committee of our conference, we seem to have the position on a firmer basis that should work a little more easily.

In November, 1993, I participated in the Annual Meeting of the Conference Secretaries of the Western Jurisdiction. It was a good opportunity to get to know each other and to share. We met in the Los Angeles area and saw the work of the Shalom Zone Projects. They have asked to meet in Alaska next fall, and we are completing these plans now. The Secretaries of the Southcentral Jurisdiction are also exploring meeting here in August.

The big plan, though is for Celebrate Mission: Alaska, a Conference-wide Mission Celebration to be held September 16-20. Each Regional Program council will design their part of the event so that it will be appropriate for that area. Stand by for more news as the event is planned.

P. Disaster Preparedness

Jim Campbell

The goal for this year was to have representatives from UMCOR lead seminars on Disaster Preparedness in all the churches that would have them. This was accomplished as far as the weather would allow. Don and Barbara Weaver from Buffalo, New York, authorities in the area of Disaster Preparedness, toured Alaska for two weeks, affirming practical measures for developing local church programs for disaster readiness.

Some local church programming has ensued from this experience as well as a request to UMCOR that additional training sessions on disaster preparation be offered to reach those places not first included and to keep the issue before the Conference. The issue is not "if" but "when" the next major quake or other disaster occurs. The more we have prepared and know the channels for help, the more the Conference churches will be in effective ministry when the time comes.

Q. Hunger Coordinator

Douglas McCoy

Fill the World with Love . . . was the theme for this year's ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING, MARCH 21. I hope that each congregation in the Alaska

Missionary Conference shared with United Methodist around the world as, through love, we responded to the needs of the victims of drought, war, natural disasters, and human actions. Materials and resources for hunger awareness and response are available to assist local churches respond to hunger in Alaska and around the world.

Tales of the Heart: Affective Approaches to Global Education is an approach to promote global awareness of hunger. Churches interested in exploring ways to develop a hunger education program are invited to contact Doug McCoy, 443-5259.

Ghandi invented the word "satyagraha" (Soul Force) to represent how love and truth come together to bring harmony to the world. Consider these words by Jerry Leggett and our call to "Fill the World with Love."

You may say "I'm only one, what difference can I make?"

In a world so upside down, what is it gonna take?

Satyagraha, Soul Force come, ignite our lives with love,

Until there's peace and dignity, for all humanity.

The power of love gives us strength, to treat our enemies as friends.

The message of truth lights the way, helps us live in harmony.

The power of love working through you,

The message of truth, it will come shining through.

R. Conference Lay Leader

Lane C. Rees

I have had very meaningful experiences this year leading worship services in a number of our churches and participating in several others. I also assisted Wasilla in their financial campaign in the fall.

With other representatives from AMC, I went to New York in February for continuing Consultation with the National Division. I believe we are seeing more willingness to work together and was encouraged by the openness expressed by Debra Bass and others.

I spent some time earlier in the year on Capital Funds efforts, but this has been delayed.

A highlight for me personally was going to Nashville in the fall for the birthday celebration of Harry Denman! He would have been 100 years old, and we had a great party in his honor. The Board of Discipleship and Foundation for Evangelism coordinated the celebration, and it was moving to hear all the stories about Harry as well as words of encouragement to share the Gospel.

S. U.M. Construction Services - Northwest

Roland Stanton

At the Feb. 10, 1994, Board meeting, it was reported that there was a current balance of $14,900. By consensus it was agreed that the northwest United Methodist Construction Services should be dissolved and that the assets should be divided among the four partners in relation to what each has contributed in capital. Patterson relinquished any claims on funds by the National Division. (He stated that the Division could use the money, but that he preferred the entire assets be distributed among the three conferences.) Myers and Bush, in consultation with the corporation's attorney, are to prepare a mail ballot that will dissolve the corporation and distribute the assets. There is a need for the consultative and management services provided by the corporation, but for the near future, each conference will handle this in its own way. Patterson asked the participating conferences to keep an open mind to the adoption of viable models in the future that will provide consultative and management services to conference agencies and local churches.

T. United Methodist Women

Barbara Dadd Shaffer, President

Women organized for mission. What a statement! In Alaska, that means more than 500 women gathered into 22 local units throughout the conference. Women engaged in study, developing spiritually, being supportive community to one another, and supporting missions at home and around the world.

Annual Meeting was held at Meier Lake Retreat Center near Wasilla on October 1-3, 1993, with the theme of "Weaving Us Together." The 1994 Meeting is October 7-9 at Meier Lake.

The four regional Mission Education Events were once again a highlight of the year. The three mission studies were presented at each event, exposing the participants to the themes and encouraging further study in their local churches. The study themes for 1994-95 are: (1) Making the World Safe for Children, (2) Families from Scripture Today: Drawing the Circle Wide, and (3) African Churches Speak.

We noticed with excitement that most local churches observed United Methodist Women Sunday on either the 3rd Sunday of February or an alternate date.

Nineteen Alaskans attended the UMW Assembly in Cincinnati the last week of April. This quadrennial event drew more than 12,000 women and men (A few, including one from Alaska) to four days of celebration, study, singing, worship, and fellowship. Ask someone who attended about it, but be prepared for overwhelming enthusiasm.

U. Volunteers in Mission

May Campbell and Sandra Coon

The allure of Alaska -- the Great Northland -- has not lost its appeal, as witnessed by the continuous contacts and inquiries received from people all over the USA; they desire to come as Volunteers in Mission to Alaska.

In 1993, our conference hosted 260 adults and 50 youth for a total of 310 folks who served Alaskan United Methodist churches and projects as VIMs. Not only did they pay their own travel and personal expenses, they brought the desire, energy, enthusiasm, and expertise to assist you to be in mission. Over $22,000 in monetary contributions were also shared with you by these VIMs toward the projects you had them work on with you. They participated in projects such as building sanctuaries, bathhouses, garages, and arctic entries. VIMs served as youth workers, camp counselors, librarians, church secretaries, and office support staff. Several teams ran entire Vacations Bible School programs at your churches. VIMs were also busy painting, remodeling, working on Habitat for Humanity projects, and serving as youth hostel hosts and supply pastors.

1994 promises to again bring vitality and exciting possibilities through the VIMs working in the Alaska Missionary Conference. We have 30 teams and 11 individuals scheduled to come and serve. Some folks have already been and gone; some are currently serving, and there are many more to come. Your local churches and communities are to be applauded for the hospitality, hard work, coordination, and commitment shown to visiting VIMs who are in mission with you at your local level. With our numbers few, the distances vast, the dollars limited, we find all things are possible with God!

By opening ourselves to the Lord's call and as others open themselves to the call also, this partnership of VIMs and local folks is making an impact for the Lord in Alaska. Count on the wonderful resource of VIMs as you look forward to your work in the conference and contact me to help.

Sandra Coon, VIM Coordinator and May Campbell, who has been absent due to health, look forward to find the helpers you need.

V. Alaska Children's Services (ACS)

James E. Maley, Executive Director

The past year has been a truly outstanding one for ACS. Almost 17,000 days of quality treatment were provided to children in our residential programs. We continue to receive a high number of referrals from outside the Anchorage bowl, and the children in our programs are truly representative of Alaska's cultural diversity.

The Spiritual Life program, under the leadership of Rev. Kevin Seckel, continues to grow. A valuable addition to that program has been the recruitment of a US-2 volunteer to assist Kevin in his work. Participation is at an all time high.

The Board of Directors of ACS instituted a new program this year to assist agency efforts. Known as the Partnership in Treatment Fund, this scholarship program provides funding for families in need of our services who would otherwise be unable to participate. This program has received substantial financial support from many Methodist individuals and congregations.

Finally, we at ACS are particularly thankful for the tremendous increase in support from many churches in the Alaska Missionary Conference. We are very grateful for your prayers, your financial support, and your guidance.

W. Alaska Impact

Richard K. Heacock

Five years ago, the Alaska Christian Conference assisted in the formation of Alaska IMPACT. The purpose of this ecumenical network is to assist people of faith in being responsible to the mandates of their faith as citizens of the State of Alaska. As God's people, we are called to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, be good stewards of creation, and to be reconciled to our sisters and brothers -- including our enemies.

From the beginning, the Alaska Missionary Conference of the United Methodist Church has been a supporting member organization. Currently serving as president of Alaska IMPACT's Board of Directors is Rev. Thomas G. Taylor of Fairbanks. Superintendent Carol A. Seckel has served on the Advisory Board from the beginning. Barianne Mills of Juneau also serves on the Board of Directors.

During the current year, background papers and updates were provided members on Hunger in the Great Land; Campaign Finance Reform; Human Sexuality Ignorance; and Health Care as a Human Right.

Action alerts were issued on the proposal to reduce Alaska's participation on program supporting dependent children; in support of the Administration's efforts to correct gambling abuses; and opposing the effort to authorize the death penalty in Alaska.

The Executive Director attended the Interfaith IMPACT for Justice and Peace 1994 Legislative Briefing in Washington, D.C., March 13-16. Your support for Alaska IMPACT is appreciated, and we welcome all who share our purpose to join us! (Recommended reading for this year: The Cutting Edge: How Churches Speak on Social Issues, Mark Ellingsen, WCC/Wm. B. Eerdmans Publishing Company, 1993. The author is a ELCA pastor and Assistant Professor of Church History at the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta.)

X. Nome Community Center

Douglas McCoy, Executive Director

"The Bering Strait is our parish." To paraphrase John Wesley, the focus of Nome Community Center has expanded over the last several years to include the people of the entire Bering Strait region of Alaska, an area that includes Nome and 15 Native Eskimo villages in 44,000 square miles. In March, 1994, we began to expand our "parish" to the far eastern area of the Bering Strait, as we initiated a project to serve youth in Provideniya, and New Chapalino, Russia.

The primary focus of Nome Community Center has always been on serving children, youth, and older adults, primarily Native Eskimo, and all of the program of NCC share this common mission. Current programs are:

XYZ Senior Center provides meals, transportation, and support.

Nome Adult Day Care for frail elderly persons and persons suffering from Alzheimer's and other related diseases. NCC has also become certified as a Medicaid Waiver and Care Coordination agency.

Young Teen Center focuses upon children and youth at risk, funded by Advance Specials and Board of Global Ministries.

Family Support Services targeted at high risk families.

Bering Strait Community Partnership for the prevention of alcohol and other drug use/abuse throughout the region.

Native Youth Entrepreneurial Training and "Salmon Berry Shop" works with youth in Nome, 9 villages, and now Russia.

Nome Food Bank/Bering Strait Food Bank

Community Employment Readiness Training (Cert) is NCC's unique summer Youth Employment Training Program.

Golden Cross Sunday offering in 1994 supports the work of the Center.

Y. Wesley Rehabilitation and Care Center

Richard W. Jones, Administrator/CEO

This has been an exciting and very busy year for the staff and residents of Wesley Rehabilitation and Care Center. Several remodeling projects were completed last summer and include the following: (1) the building of a car port and covered resident loading area for the vans and cars, (2) a new sun room and solarium was built off the main floor and ground level day rooms, (3) the main floor day room was renovated and a new 150 gallon aquarium and 35 inch television were added, and (4) the ground level day room was expanded to provide more space for dining and activities for the residents.

The census has increased steadily throughout this past year. We have now regained the level of occupancy of 1988. With the increase in census, the financial position has become increasingly solid.

The facility has continued to have significant support from the community. We have appreciated the many kindnesses shown to our staff and residents by the community, church, and civic groups and individuals throughout Alaska. Several missionary groups have also visited the facility and have generously named and included Wesley as their project at their home church.

Z. United Campus Ministry

University of Alaska Fairbanks, David Moore

United Campus Ministry had a new beginning this year. We started a mid-week worship service called Tuesday Vespers, a Bible study and discussion group called Thursday Lunch Bunch, and a social activity every other weekend called Friday Night Fellowship. We also meet in the office on Monday afternoon to prepare the music for Vespers. The group also went out to different churches to help lead worship services. The students gave over $150 to buy Christmas presents and food for a needy family. They served at Breadline, an ecumenical ministry set up to feed the hungry of Fairbanks. We visited the Pioneer Home for the elderly twice, once to sing Christmas carols and once to have an ice cream social. Most of these activities were planned by our leadership council. This group met twice a month to be trained in spiritual discipline to plan activities, and to pray for the campus and the group. Students have grown through worship, leadership, social activities, and service, as well as through informal discussion in the office where 10 or so gather daily.

Our director David Moore went to Nome and St. Lawrence Island to help develop ways to reach and minister to students from villages. Our administrative assistant Deb Ongtooguk continues a UAF tradition of distributing over 200 care packages to students each semester.

We believe strongly in campus ministry and believe that we have only scratched the surface of the great things God can do here. We hope that you will continue to support us through prayer and with your gifts.

AA. University Community Ministry

University of Alaska Anchorage/ Jay OlsonKetchum

As the chaplain for UCM I was gratified to be invited to the year end Appreciation Banquet for faculty advisors. This invitation, given by those who work closely with students, was a very important act of acceptance and appreciation. At UAA, acceptance and trust from the Student Club Council and the Leadership Co-ordinators are invaluable! That encounter was a mark of some success in this year's ministry at UAA.

At the invitation of the head of the Counseling Center, I served on the Crisis Response Team all year and will offer my assistance over the summer as needed. The weekly Talking Circle was very successful as students used the safety of the Circle for talking through their struggles in search of their worth.

There is a terrific need for Pastoral Care on campus as well as for dialogue between religion and higher education. Students, staff, and faculty express their appreciation for the presence and work of UCM. As the Chaplain I have sought to create a safe environment for University people to talk about anything for the purposes of healing and enlightenment.

UCM will continue its work and I remain committed to UCM. The goals for next year include office space for the chaplain and increased liaisons with faculty and administrators. It's also time to propose a deeper and more intentional dialogue between religion and higher education at UAA.

Thank you for your generous and much needed support and please pray for UCM. Peace be with you all.

BB. Western Small Church/Rural Life Center

Linda Jean Myers

The Western Small Church/Rural Life Center was established 12 years ago to work with churches with small membership, especially in rural areas, enabling them to be in vital ministry in their communities; witnessing to the love of God; and participating in the revitalization of rural communities throughout the Western Jurisdiction. It is governed by a Board of Directors made up of representatives of each of the eight annual conferences and the Alaska Missionary Conference.

This past year has been a year of transitions at the Center: The Rev. Dr. Deborah Cronin resigned as Executive Director effective June 30, 1993; Pamela Schropshire, Administrative Assistant, maintained the Center, responded to requests, and assisted the search committee as they looked for a new director. Carol Thompson was hired as the Director as of January 1, 1994.

Rev. Tom Taylor, Deborah Bass (Assistant Deputy General Secretary, NPD), and Conference Superintendent Billy Still.

X. Petitions and Recommendations

A. Adopted Petitions

Petition #1 directs the CCC to enter into discussions with the original partners of the Alaska Comity Agreement and other appropriate religious bodies to seek a contemporary view of partnership in ministry in Alaska.

Petition #2 directs the Professional Ministries Unit and CF&A to provide dependent care reimbursement for those presently qualifying to include not only meeting days, but also days required for travel.

Petition #5 directs members of the AMC and any standing committee, council, or unit members to use the most economical airfare in effect for the meeting dates of their respective group. Tickets must be purchased 21 days prior to AMC meetings.

Petition #7 establishes a Russian Ministry Task Force accountable to the CCC through the New Ministry Committee. There shall be five members on the Task Force: chairperson and two members-at-large elected by the Conference Coordinating Council; the AMC Superintendent; and a member of the New Ministries Committee appointed by the chairperson of that committee. This task force shall be responsible for defining, initiating, developing, coordinating, interpreting, staffing, and funding all ministries to Russia on behalf of the AMC. It shall cooperate and coordinate ministries with UMCOR and with Jurisdictions that desire to use Alaska as a staging area and it will coordinate AMC involvement with the Western Jurisdiction participation in the Russia Initiative in the Russia Far East.

Petition #8 calls for a review of the Council Director position. The review is to be done by the CCC.

Petition #9 directs the CCC to review the Vision 2000 program sponsored by the General Board of Discipleship of The United Methodist Church and determine whether this program should be implemented in our churches in Alaska. If such a determination is positive, the CCC shall determine guidelines for its implementation.

Petition #10 concerning the creation of an Alaskan Academy of Spiritual Formation was referred to the CCC.

Petition #11 calls for the inclusion of Anvik in the Northern Region (at the expense of the NRPC for one year).

Petition #12 encourages each local church and organization within the AMC to bring an informational display concerning its work to the Annual Meeting.

Petition #14 encourages all AMC Boards, Committees, Units and Regional Program Councils to use teleconferencing and modem links to more effectively involve churches, in isolated communities, in doing the work of the Conference and regions. (The UMC in Unalaska would assist in hardware purchase and any necessary training.)

Petition #15 directs the AMC to develop a plan and strategies for improving communication and networking within the Conference. The group to accomplish this action is the Communications Coordinator and committee members.

Petition #16 inserts "at-large missionaries and non-appointed missionaries" after "home missionaries" in Rule R3.05. It would then read as follows: Reimbursement for approved expenses as defined by the Council on Finance and Administration will be paid for clergy members, lay members, local pastors, home missionaries, at-large missionaries, non-appointed missionaries, diaconal ministers, deaconesses, the AMC secretary, the statistician, the treasurer, the historian, the chancellor, and the chairperson of the CF&A."

Petition #19 supports the GBGM Permanent Fund #025100 entitled "Encounter With Christ in Latin America and the Caribbean" as a designated giving channel through which we can offer hope and give a gift that will last many life times. One million dollars must first go into a permanent fund #025100 via current and/or deferred giving, before the interest can be used. Churches/individuals of the AMC will be asked to give to the permanent fund. The amount given will be decided by each church/individual. Janet Kussart and the Permanent Fund Advisory Board will seek to implement this goal.

Petition #20 forms a special committee to review health care coverage. The committee shall be composed of no more clergy than lay members. The committee shall review alternatives to the present health care plan offered by the Conference in an effort to lower the costs of that coverage. The committee shall explore alternative plans as well as other means of lowering the costs of health care coverage, such as associating with larger pools of participants. The committee shall also research and make recommendations regarding health insurance for clergy on disability leave and his/her dependents and surviving dependents of deceased clergy. The committee is to report to the winter meeting of the Administrative Unit with recommendations to be presented to the 1995 Annual Meeting.

B. Recommendations

1. Conference Council on Finance and Administration

The Council on Finance and Administration submits the following items for consideration and approval by the Alaska Missionary Conference at its 1994 Annual Meeting. Items 2, 4, 7 and 8 are for information only.

1. All requests for funds from the AMC funds from the 1996 budget shall be submitted to CFA prior to the Council's winter 1995 meeting.
2. The total Equitable Compensation Subsidy for 1995 will be $75,000.
3. The 1995 budget for the Alaska Missionary Conference for 1994 will total $516,363 (see 1995 proposed budget for specifics.)
4. The grade point figure for each local church will be the average (over a three-year period) of 1/3 of the membership grade figure (MGF) and 2/3 of the local expense grade figure (LEGF) according to these guidelines.

ALASKA MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

- A. The three years will be 1991, 1992, and 1993.
- B. $MGF = \text{LOCAL CHURCH MEMBERSHIP} \div \text{ALASKA MISSIONARY CONFERENCE TOTAL MEMBERSHIP}$ at the end of any specific year.
- C. $LEGF = \text{LOCAL CHURCH EXPENDITURES} \div \text{TOTAL OF ALL LOCAL CHURCH EXPENDITURES}$ in any given calendar year.
Local church expenditures include:
 - Clergy support (plus 25% of the pastor's salary if the pastor is provided with a parsonage.
 - Other local expenses.
 - EXCLUDED from other local expenses are:
 - Rent payments for church facilities with principal and interest paid on indebtedness.
 - Payments on building improvements.
 - Nonapportioned benevolence paid by the local church.
- D. Pension apportionments shall be based upon the recommendation of the Administrative Unit.
- E. Apportionments to a local church shall not increase or decrease more than the percentage change in the total apportioned figure + or - 10%.
5. The 1995 apportionments negotiated with the General Council on Finance and Administration at 60% of the on-formula amount are $64,116. (See proposed budget explanation page for details.)
6. At the end of the fiscal year the account balances shall revert to the General Operations Reserves Fund except as follows:
DO NOT REVERT BUT ARE CARRIED OVER:
 - AMC Office Equipment Replacement Fund
 - AMC Vehicle Fund
 - AMC Superintendent's Auto Replacement Fund
 - Wesleyan House Operations Fund
 - 1996 Annual Meeting Fund
 - Financial Review/Audit Fund
 - Alaska Christian Conference Travel (up to $500 unused/yr.)
 - AMC Treasurer Annual Meeting TravelCONNECTIONAL CLERGY SUPPORT TO CONNECTIONAL CLERGY SUPPORT FUND.
PENSION FUND TO PENSION RESERVE FUND.
7. New churches will have apportionments reduced on the following basis after beginning the Fiscal Year following their charter:
 - First year - no apportionment, second year - 33% regular apportionments, third year - 66% regular apportionment, fourth year- full apportionment.
8. All churches are strongly urged to pay their apportionments in 10 equal installments beginning in January.
9. For reasons of economy, the Annual Conference shall hold the meetings of Administrative and Program Agencies, Boards, and committees in conjunction with the Professional Church Workers' Retreat and the Annual Meeting with the exception of the Outdoor Ministries Committee, beginning in calendar year 1995. Any additional meetings will be conducted by teleconferencing.
10. There shall be no increase in salaries for AMC staff in fiscal 1995.

2. Board of Pensions

Changes and budget recommendations in Board of Pensions report for 1995 AMC Budget presented at 1994 meeting of the AMC.

1. Determination of cash salary for means of plan compensation, i.e. MMP/CPP
 - A. Cash Salary (including Social Security allowance)
 - B. Housing allowance, or when a parsonage is provided, 24% of the cash salary as the value of the parsonage.
 - C. Any tax-deferred annuity contribution paid by the salary-paying unit during the year.
2. The Ministerial Pension Program (MPP) contribution rate for 1995 shall be 12% of the contribution base of each minister.
3. The Comprehensive Protection Program (CPP) contribution rate for 1995 shall be 4.4% of the contribution base of each full-time minister. For ordained ministers working less than full-time, the contribution rate for 1995 shall be 3.4% of the DAC. Part-time Local Pastors are not covered under the CPP.
4. Remittance of the MPP-CPP shall be made by the Alaska Missionary Conference with the funds generated through the apportionment system adjusted as recommended below.
5. All ordained ministers under episcopal appointment by the Alaska Missionary Conference and eligible for the AMC Pension Program shall be covered by the CPP including those receiving less than equitable compensation (i.e. those serving less than full-time).
6. An ordained minister in an appointment beyond the local church is eligible to participate in the MPP/CPP plans as indicated in the Plan Documents of the General Board of Pensions. If the charge, institution, or agency is unable to arrange participation directly with the General Board of Pensions, the minister may be covered through the Alaska Missionary Conference, provided the salary-paying unit makes appropriate contributions to cover the actual cost of MPP/CPP for the individual.
7. The Past Service Pension Rate for 1995 shall be 370 per service year. It is the intention of the committee to maintain a rate of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC) so as to avoid penalty. This requires that the PSPR equal no less than .9% of CAC.
8. For pension recipients, the AMC designates up to 100% of the pension payments to be allocated as housing allowance by the individual clergy person. The amount would be excluded from gross income as provided by Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code (Subject to all IRS ruling.)
9. Part-time Local Pastors under episcopal appointment shall be covered for MPP at the prevailing rate.
10. Funding for 1995 shall be as follows:
 - A. Current Service - MPP/CPP Ordained Clergy

16.4% or $34,832 (DAC 1995) = $5,712.49
23 Full Time pastors including Superintendent	$131,387.27
1 Part-Time (75%)
$26,124 x 15.4%	$4,023.01

ALASKA MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

B. Current Service - MPP Part-Time Local Pastors
12% Contribution Base
Ninilchik	$16,000
Girdwood	5,200
Tongan	7,400
TOTAL	$28,600
$28,600 x 12%	$3,432.00
Total Pension Liability	$138,842.28

This is all dependent on a Past Service Funding at the level to maintain maximum pensions benefits.

Sources of Funding for 1995:

A. Apportionments of all churches	$118,842.28
B. Pension Reserves	20,000.00

Total Funding Sources for 1995.....$138,842.28

11. To maintain comparable levels of contributions for pensions, the following adjustments shall be made in the computation of apportionments for the pension portion of the budget only:

- A. For churches with more than one ordained position/salary, the regular grade point figure shall be used for the first U.M. ordained ministerial position/salary. For each additional eligible U.M. position/salary, the church shall be apportioned the full pension cost for that position. The full pension cost shall be computed at 16.4% of the DAC or plan compensation (whichever is less) and shall be prorated for the effective months of the year. Exceptions to this rule may be made for specialized ministries upon recommendation of the Administrative Unit to the Annual Meeting.
- B. For Union/United Churches:
 1. With one U.M. ordained minister, the grade figure will be doubled.
 2. With no U.M. ordained ministers, the grade figure is zero (assuming the pension for the pastor is paid elsewhere).
 3. When a Union/United church has more than one ordained minister, one of whom is United Methodist, the regular grade figure is used. (Adopted 1987)

3. Committee of Equitable Compensation

1. Minimum Salary for 1995

A. Minimum Cash Base Compensation	24,000
1. Cash Salary
2. Social Security Allowance for Pastor's Tax Liability
3. Tax Sheltered Annuity

(Note: The exact amounts of 1, 2, and 3 are to be worked out between the pastors and congregation involved; health insurance is not to be included here.

B. Additions to $24,000

1. Experience Factor - add $150 per service year from date of ordination as Deacon.
2. Area Cost of Living Adjustment (add % of cash base).
 - a. Anchorage, 0% added
 - b. Kenai Peninsula, Sitka, Fairbanks, Wasilla, Willow, Trapper Creek, North Pole, 5% added.
 - c. Nome, 35% added.
 - d. Unalaska/Dutch Harbor, 40% added.
 - e. All others, 0% added.

C. Other Considerations

1. A parsonage and full utilities or a reasonable housing allowance shall be provided to pastors serving full-time appointments.
2. A local transportation allowance shall be provided to meet actual pastorally related expenses in each situation.
3. Professional expenses other than health insurance and those listed in C-1 shall be figured as a part of minimum salary.
4. $1,000 minimum for Continuing Education.

2. Salary Subsidy needs for 1995$75,000

- A. A church on Salary Subsidy must have the approval of the Conference Superintendent and the Equitable Salary Committee in order to continue that subsidy when hiring another full-time professional staff person.
- B. A salary subsidy cannot be given if a pastor is making more than minimum salary.
- C. The amount of subsidy given to each situation will be negotiated between the local church, Conference Superintendent, and Equitable Salary Committee.

4. Proposed Qualifications for Advance Special Salary Support/Covenant Relationships

Those missionaries who qualify for salary support through the Advance shall:

1. Serve local churches with less than 200 members.
2. Serve local churches with budgets less than $150,000 raised locally excluding debt retirement. (For locations which qualify for COLA by Equitable Salary standards, the maximum shall be $150,000 plus the COLA.)
3. Serve local churches which are able to maintain a parsonage or housing allowance in the exceptional cases.
4. Receive a salary not more than 10% above the minimum cash base salary (before COLA and years of experience are added) established by the Equitable Compensation Guidelines set at the Annual Meeting. (Exceptions to this shall be the first five years of a new ministry and Native Ministries and crisis situations).
5. Be recommended by the Equitable Compensation Committee for approval by the Administrative Unit and the Conference Superintendent.

5. Parsonage Standards

Property Ownership: If a parsonage is provided, it should be owned by the local charge or a Board of Trustees of the Alaska Missionary Conference. Also, flexibility should be allowed so that a pastor and congregation can work out an arrangement whereby a housing allowance is provided in lieu of a parsonage.

The House: At least four bedrooms; a basement with exit where possible; house plan should be flexible to allow for differing size families; family room, at least two full bathrooms; adequate storage; large living room; adequate weather stripping and insulation; screens on windows that open; double garage, not necessarily heated; dining area suitable for family and entertaining; sit-down eating space in the kitchen; a wood stove would be a desirable feature. New parsonages should be handicap accessible.

Location: Preferably within walking distance of the church building, but not more than 3 miles away.

Furnishings: Household personal items should be provided by the parsonage family. Heavy furniture and major appliances in good working order should be provided by the church including: beds, tables, chairs, sofa, freezer, washer and dryer, refrigerator, dishwasher, disposal, chests and dressers, drapes and floor coverings, lawnmower, where needed, fire extinguisher, smoke alarms. Painting (in and out), carpet deep cleaning should be scheduled on a 4-year basis or change of pastor.

Appliances and Furnishings Allowance: Each parsonage family shall have available to them $1000 each appointive year to be used at the discretion of pastor and parsonage committee for appliances and furnishings as listed above. In the first year of appointment, this amount shall be available at the time of arrival of the parsonage family where possible. The Trustees shall keep a record of the date of purchase and repair of all appliances, including the heating system, and of all painting and decorating, inside and out. The Superintendent shall ask for the Parsonage Report at the annual Charge Conference meeting.

Garage and Grounds: If possible, a garage shall be provided with adequate lights and electrical outlets and sufficient space for gardening and lawn equipment, bicycles, etc. This should be provided with easy to operate door. Any damage to the parsonage or grounds caused by any household pet shall be repaired or replaced at the expense of the parsonage occupants. Excessive damage, beyond normal wear, to the parsonage caused by the parsonage family shall be repaired, replaced, or paid for by the pastor.

Maintenance Fund: A revolving fund of $1000 shall be available for maintenance repairs and upkeep as authorized by the trustees. For most churches this should be a trust account drawn on when needed, not necessarily budgeted in full every year.

Insurance: Replacement value of the parsonage should be the guide for insurance coverage. Insurance on the pastor's personal items should be provided by the pastor.

Parsonage Committee: The PPR Chair, the Trustee Chair, the Pastor and family shall meet at least once annually to review parsonage needs and existing conditions.

Utilities: Full cost of utilities are to be provided for each parsonage, when the pastor lives in the parsonage.

An Encouragement to All: We recognize that comfortable surroundings in the home contribute to the happiness, health, and effectiveness of the parsonage family and the pastor in their work for the whole church. We encourage that each parish will do its very best in providing such a home.

XI. Statistical and Financial Reports

A. Statistician's Report

David Means

The 1993 year brought several gains to the conference. The conference added a new church in 1993; Unalaska. Local church membership increased by 5% to around 4,000 members. Likewise, preparatory and constituent membership increased. Average church school and other small group attendance increased. Churches contributed more to special offerings and other church benevolences than they did in 1992. After factoring out one time expenditures paid for buildings and improvements during 1992, local churches paid more for their operating expenses during 1993. That may indicate higher giving by local church membership.

Preliminary information indicates several potential problems. The average attendance at the principle worship service declined during 1993. Baptisms declined as well. Church school enrollment declined even though average attendance increased. And, several churches did not pay their entire 1993 apportionments.

B. Conference Treasurer's Report

Susan Bickman, Treasurer

Doug Bradford, Financial Assistant

The year of 1993 brought a great deal of change to the financial office of the AMC. Linda Faro went on to a position which allows her to utilize her desire to work with the elderly, using the skills she learned in completing her degree. We underwent a period of learning for everyone, Carol and Susan learned that we could actually print the reports required by committees when need be!

We have been very fortunate to have a new financial assistant who is computer literate to the max!! Doug's addition to the staff and his ability to execute tasks with little supervision is greatly appreciated!! We hope you will have an opportunity to meet Doug during the Annual Meeting, and if not, don't hesitate to call him and introduce yourself over the phone.

The following graphs relate the budgeted or anticipated expenses to the actual expenses, and likewise for an apportionment income. We thank you for your steadfast efforts in 1993 in timely payments and reporting to the office. The apportionment income broke out as follows:

Ministerial Support	94%
Connectional Administration	92%
World Service	91%
Other General Apportionments	91%

We ended the year receiving an overall average of 93% of the apportionment income budget. Feel free to stop Doug or me and ask any questions regarding the reporting that you have. If we are unable to answer your question, we will find the information.
